

Presidential Statement

The United Nations Security Council,

Condemns all actions leading to the loss of innocent civilian lives;

Recommends all UN Member States to refrain from unilateral actions to avoid further escalation;

Urges the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia to send a formal note of regret for killing innocent civilians of Iranian nationality, as long as nothing else is proven to the United Nations Security Council and asks the Iranian Navy to withdraw from the Strait of Hormuz in order to make the Strait again open as a route of free passage in response.
