Terms and Conditions of OLMUN 2017

1. The MUN Director, participant and, if applicable his/her legal guardian accept these Terms and Conditions. They apply to all proceedings prior to, during and after OLMUN 2017.
2. These Terms and Conditions constitute a binding legal agreement between the OLMUN Association (OLMUN e.V.), represented by Josefine Went (Blumenstraße 49, 26121 Oldenburg - Germany), and the participant or his/her legal guardian.
3. Application Process
  - a. The application process consists of several stages that in most instances have to be taken online at www.olmun.org.
    - i. Step 1: Individuals or groups interested in participating in the next OLMUN conference name a representative, hereafter called MUN-Director, who will be taking care of all business between the OLMUN Association and the potential participants. Furthermore, Step 1 demands a non-binding estimation on how many delegates and how many teachers are intending to attend the conference. Should the delegation be interested in the housing programme, this should be indicated as well.
    - ii. Step 2: The MUN-Director provides the OLMUN Association with the final information on the final number of delegates and teachers that will be attending the conference. Furthermore, the number of delegates and teachers who desire to take part in the housing programme must be indicated. The invoice will be based on the numbers provided by step 2, wherefore step 2 is binding.
    - iii. Step 3: The OLMUN Association provides the information on the assigned delegations as well as the invoice and these terms and conditions via e-mail.
    - iv. The Secretariat will set a time frame in which the MUN-Directors will be able to order public transportation tickets. Orders placed after this period of time are not entitled to the same discounted rate.

  - c. Individuals holding public transportation tickets are responsible for following regulations made by the public transportation providers, such as but not limited to additional charges for express trains or night busses.
8. Privacy policy
- a. By applying to the OLMUN conference, MUN-Directors and delegates, or their legal guardians, agree that their personal data will be used for the purposes of the OLMUN conference they have applied for, as well as for the invitations for the following conferences.
  - b. Personal data may be processed by designated members of the OLMUN Association's team.
  - c. Names, e-mail addresses and delegations represented may be published for the purpose of preparatory activities to all committee members, unless individuals object.
  - d. MUN-Directors' names, email addresses, schools and countries of residence may be published in a list of contact among the MUN-Directors taking part in the conference.

- e. The OLMUN Association will not forward any personal data to non-participants, except the names and countries of origin / nationalities of participants.
  - f. All personal data will be deleted one year after the OLMUN conference.
  - g. Individuals may contact the OLMUN Association at any time in order to have their personal data deleted. However, personal data will be kept until all rightful financial claims of the OLMUN Association have been satisfied.
  - h. All MUN-Directors and participants agree that the OLMUN Association, journalists and other accredited individuals or companies may take pictures and conduct audio and video recordings at OLMUN and any of OLMUN related activities, and that these recordings may be used for OLMUN related purposes, such as but not limited to public relations activities. Additionally, any written documents created during the process of preparation or actual conference participation for the purpose of the conference may be used by the OLMUN Association for the same purposes.
9. Additional responsibilities
- a. The MUN-Director must provide each individual of the group, or its legal guardians, with a copy of these Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy and obtain a signature from each individual or its legal guardian, indicating their acceptance of these Terms & Conditions. The signed copies must reach the OLMUN Association at least fourteen days prior to the conference by mail or fax.
  - b. All participants must follow these rules and instructions given by the OLMUN Association's representatives at all times. Failure to do so may result in expulsion from the conference and all conference-related activities.
